PERSHING BEARS CRUSHING BLOW WITH FORTITUDE

Heart-rending Scene Is Witnessed as General Grooms His Little Son, the Only Survivor of Terrible Tragedy.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—Eastbound tonight on an overland train, Brig. Gen. John D. Pershing, U. S. A., is completing the sad journey which will take the bodies of his wife and three little girls to their last resting place at Cheyenne, Wyo.

With him is his five-year-old son, Warren, who survived the tragedy which took place at Cheyenne, Wyo.

General Pershing, who was commanding the Eighth infantry brigade on the Mexican border when the news of his loss was conveyed to him, arrived at Oakland from Fort Bliss this morning where he was met by a select group of intimates headed by Maj. Henry H. Whitney, post commander at the Presidio.

The party came at once to San Francisco and General Pershing went directly to the Lathrop general hospital where Little Warren had been cared for since the disaster which snatched him from his mother and sisters.

No words were spoken at the meeting of father and son but for a long time the grief-stricken soldier held his little son in his arms.

WASH CHARGED WITH FALSEHOOD ABOUT COLORADO

Governor Carlson Issues Prepared Statement Denouncing Chairman of Industrial Commission.

Denver, Aug. 29.—Governor George A. Carlson tonight issued a prepared statement, charging that Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the federal commission on industrial relations, had spread "mendacious statements" regarding the political and industrial conditions in Colorado.

Mr. Walsh, with vicious and spiteful cunning, is imputing the domination of Rockefeller to an overwhelming majority of Colorado's citizens," ran the governor's statement. "With the sophistry of the mountebank and the prestige of federal authority he seeks to transfer to our people the burden of the nation's industrial misfortune."

After declaring that the people of the state, at the 1914 election, deliberately decided against strike violence, the governor continued:

"I picture a mountebank and a sensationalist, he (Walsh) did not tell the truth because the truth concerning Colorado is not wanted by the yellow press of the nation and these anti-social elements whom he represents."

The governor's statement was issued after a long and bitter fight with the federal commission on industrial relations.

STAR AND GARTER MOST FAMOUS OF ENGLISH HOTELS

Celebrated Building Has Been Purchased by Real Estate Men and Presented to Queen for Red Cross Hospital.

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

London, Aug. 29.—The Star and Garter, hotel at Richmond on the Thames, which has just been purchased by the real estate men of Great Britain, and presented to the queen as a Red Cross hospital for disabled officers, is probably the most famous hotel in England.

For something over 150 years there has been a history of this name on the brow of Richmond hill, presenting the finest view of the winding river that is obtainable anywhere within a day's journey of London. The view from the windows of the Star and Garter has inspired poetry from Wordsworth to Marlowe as a picture which "Bursts in a flood of glory on the view. Still bright, still varied and forever new."

An auction advertisement printed 150 years ago described the property as follows: "These three desirable and valuable premises, the Star and Garter, on Richmond hill, the favorite spot for country parties, and the admiration and resort of the first nobility and taste in Europe; replete with every requisite convenience for the reception of all ranks in the public line, possessing the most extensive and delightful views of the Thames, the whole forming one of the most enchanting pictures in Great Britain."

One of the notable occasions of the hotel was a breakfast served on June 10, 1814, at which were present the prince regent of England, the emperor of Russia, the duchess of Oldenburg, and the king of Prussia with his sons and nephews. The company, which also included General Blucher and Platteau, had journeyed out from London by coach.

Queen Victoria was a frequent visitor to the hotel, particularly during the earlier years of her reign, and there were few of her royal contemporaries who did not at one time or another partake of its hospitality during the last decade of the century.

Within two years it was rebuilt in even more magnificent fashion, and for the next few years was at the height of its popularity. King Edward, while prince of Wales, was often seen there. The cook was excellent, the wines unimpeachable, and the cost was moderate. It was a fine pair of horses, it was a fine pair of horses, it was a fine pair of horses.
